My Career ..

My career is the key to unlock the door for children to soar.

When I speak life into a child, it should make them smile.

When I listen to a child, it helps them share their fears.

As a counselor, I am the resource and service at the school. I help and give them direction to cope over the years.

Life is a daily task of completing goals, but when we do not set them, we have no direction of which way to go.

A school counselor is train to help every male or female grow.

My career is special to children because they can explore their feelings of equality and diversity. A supportive counselor will help guide you along the adventurous journey.

Choosing a career can be an up and down hill rollercoaster ride for the young and old. Remember it is your decision that will help you accomplish your future goals.
