

Designing and Implementing Career Interventions: A Handbook for Effective Practice (Second Edition)

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Introduction

Key Concepts
Purpose of this Handbook.
Assumptions
Effective Use of This Handbook

Chapter 2: Career Interventions

Key Concepts
Nature of Career Interventions
What is a Career Intervention?
Why are Career Interventions Needed?
Who Delivers Career Interventions
Where are Career Interventions Delivered and Who are They For?
What are the Outcomes of a Career Intervention?
What are the Differences Between Core and Specialized Career Interventions?
How does Collaboration Improve the Delivery of Career Interventions?
Who is Involved in Implementing Career Interventions?
When is an Implementation Model Needed in Career Intervention?
Strategies for Improving Career Interventions
Using Career Theory to Improve Career Interventions
Using Research to Improve Career Interventions
Using Professional Standards and Policy to Improve Career Interventions
Using Implementation Models to Improve Career Interventions

Chapter 3: Examples of Using Career Theory in Implementing Career Interventions

Key Concepts
Cognitive Information Processing (CIP) Theory
Applying CIP Theory to the Design of Career Interventions
Applying CIP Theory to Career Assessment
Applying CIP Theory to Career Information
Applying CIP Theory to Instruction
Applying CIP Theory to Career Intervention Evaluation
RIASEC Theory
Applying RIASEC Theory to the Design of Career Interventions
Applying RIASEC Theory to Career Assessment
Applying RIASEC Theory to Career Information
Applying RIASEC Theory to Instruction
Applying RIASEC Theory to Career Intervention Evaluation
Integrating Other Theoretical Perspectives

Chapter 4: Evaluation and Accountability in Career Interventions

Key Concepts

Evaluation

Formative and Summative Evaluation

Formative Evaluation

Summative Evaluation

Participation of Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders in Evaluation

Accountability

A Five-Step Model of Accountability

Prescription

Process

Outputs

Outcomes

Sources of Accountability Data

Chapter 5: Implementing Career Interventions

Key Concepts

Using an Implementation Plan to More Effectively Manage Change in Career Intervention

Examples of Effective and Ineffective Implementation

Assumptions about Implementation

Participants in Implementation

Staff Members

Collaborating Partners

Stakeholders

An Eight-Step Model for Implementing Career Interventions

Validity of the Implementation Model

Steps and Elements of the Implementation Model

(1) Evaluate Current Career Interventions

Prepare for Evaluation

Assess Needs

Evaluate Current Career Interventions

Prepare for Implementation

Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders

(2) Select, Adapt, Revise, and Develop Improved Career Interventions

Prepare for Improving Career Interventions

Improve Career Interventions

Plan and Use a Formative Evaluation of Career Interventions

Explore Opportunities for Collaboration with Other Organizations

Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders

(3) Integrate Improved Career Interventions with Existing Career Interventions

Prepare for Integrating Career Interventions

Integrate Improved and Existing Career Interventions

Plan Strategies for Summative Evaluation and Accountability Tasks

Evaluate Progress in Integrating Career Interventions

Plan the Delivery of Career Interventions at Pilot Sites

Prepare to Market Career Interventions to the Target Audience(s)
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders
 (4) Train Staff in Pilot Sites
 Plan Staff Training for the Pilot Sites
 Provide Staff Training at the Pilot Sites
 Conduct a Formative Evaluation of Staff Training at the Pilot Sites
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders
 (5) Conduct Pilot Testing
 Conduct the Pilot Test
 Evaluate Progress in Pilot Testing
 Prepare to Market Career Interventions to the Target Audience(s)
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders
 (6) Train All Staff Members
 Revise the Plan for Staff Training as Needed
 Conduct Staff Training
 Market Career Interventions to the Target Audience(s)
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders
 (7) Deliver Career Interventions
 Deliver Career Interventions to Individuals
 Market Career Interventions to the Target Audience(s)
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders
 (8) Conduct Ongoing Evaluation and Continue Accountability Tasks
 Collect, Analyze, and Interpret Evaluation Data
 Collect, Describe, and Disseminate Accountability Data
 Communicate with Staff Members, Collaborating Partners, and Stakeholders

Chapter 6: Strategies for Successful Implementation of Career Interventions

Key Concepts

Nature of the Organization

Staff Participation in Decision-Making

Accepting the Continuing Nature of Implementation

Cultivating Attitudes of Cautious Optimism and Persistence

Using Empowering Language

Implementing Change

Consistent Leadership

Allocating Adequate Time and Effort for Implementation

Being Clear About Staff Roles in Implementing Change

Proactively Addressing Staff Resistance to Change

Providing Effective Staff Training

Willingness to Repeat Steps in the Implementation Process

Cultural and National Factors in Implementing Change

Cultural and National Differences

Cultural and National Similarities

Relevance of the Eight-Step Implementation Model in Various Cultures and Nations

Final Thoughts About Successful Implementation

Chapter 7: Adapting the Implementation Models in this Handbook

Key Concepts

Adapting the Implementation Model in this Handbook in Large Organizations

Adapting the Implementation Model in this Handbook in Small Organizations

References

Appendices

Appendix A: Glossary of Key Terms

Appendix B: An Eight-Step Model for Implementing Career Interventions

Appendix C: Career Intervention Plan

Appendix D: Implementation Checklist

Appendix E: Managing Implementation of Improved Career Interventions

Author and Subject Index