

It's a Journey

by Deneatra Barfield

The Egyptian pyramids were not built in a day neither will your Career be.

Make A plan, chart it out and you will see each block taking shape what may seem at first slowly.

Do not fret, don't worry, don't let jealousy of others get you off track of your victory.

You see everyone has a different path given to you at birth, for some of us it can take a few years to unearth.

Remember the more we dig in the rich soil of our souls the more we discover things like patience, excellence, which are worth more than riches of gold.

No matter where you are on this journey, you're not too old, whether you're 32 or 64 years old.

Listen to wise teaching and ignore the negativity this will help you stay on the path of Success and creativity!
